

Fig. S4. Diagnostic axial magnetic resonance images at the time of local failure and corresponding planning CT images with 95% isodose distribution: a 69-year-old female patient with the cervical chordoma. Yellow-line indicates contour for the recurrent lesions; CT, computed tomography; MRI T2WI, axial T2-weighted image on magnetic resonance imaging.